TEARA works with local Christian organisations around the world and with indigenous Australians.

In special hard-to-reach, rural and remote areas, we focus on community development projects that seek to improve the lives of the poorest and most vulnerable people, regardless of background or belief, uniting communities and providing support for men and women.

In the past, a woman strokes her goat, but it's not a family pet. Rather, it's a source of livelihood for her and her family.
